

Administrative Order 2021-1

The Chief Administrative Law Judge, the Honorable Joshua C. Price, designates his backup judge, the Honorable Mara Amendola, to preside over the Bureau of Administrative Adjudication in his absence. In the event that both Judge Price and the back-up Judge, or her successor, are not available to preside over the BAA then Judge Price will designate one of the three Appellate Administrative Law Judges to preside. For any case that is appealed on a day when Judge Price and the back- up Judge are not presiding, then the back-up Judge will sit as one of the appellate Judges for any cases appealed that day.
